

EMILY WILDING DAVISON

This is Emily Wilding Davison. She was a suffragette.

- Research why she was famous
- Find out about her prison sentences
- What did she do during the 1911 census and why?
- How did she die? What was she trying to do?
- Research newspaper articles which covered the story of her death.

Write your own newspaper article reporting her death. This could be done on the computer.

Remember to include: headline, subheading, an opening paragraph, facts about her death, direct and indirect speech from witnesses, active and passive voice, and a photograph and caption.

Think about how you will present your work to make it look like a genuine newspaper report (using bold font, columns)
