

Rock Paper Scissors

Sarayah
Year 6 Oak

I turned around to witness such a beautiful sight making nature blossom. I saw it was a paper girl and started to admire her ray of sunshine. I was tempted to go to her but tripped right into her beautiful eyes, I gazed at her and saw she was more ravishing in person. But that magical moment faded as we heard the snipping of the rebellious scissors. I heard the sound of him coming closer and closer so I took a tight hold of paper but my hand started to crumble. At that moment I knew that we could never be together. I still needed to protect her, so I told her to follow me so she could be safe and so she did.

We'd found a place to hide but it wasn't long that we were safe, scissors had found us. As brave as paper was she could not defeat scissors and she fell down to the floor. My heart broke to see such an incredible girl on the floor injured, so I got revenge for her and broke scissors. I started to realize we can't both be alive, it's either me or her. The forest is nothing without the mother of nature so I sacrificed myself for her life , at least I knew she could be safe and no matter what I will always love paper💕.
