

Open-Ended Questions

1. Look at the start of the chapter. Find and copy two of the jobs that Ethel completed.
2. Find and copy two words or phrases that suggest Ethel and her mistress have a good relationship.
3. “These rallies are breeding grounds for discontent,” Mabel rattled on.
What does Mabel mean by the phrase breeding grounds?
4. Ethel looked puzzled.
“What sort of meeting, ma’am?”
Her mistress’s face lit up.
Why did Ethel’s mistress’s face light up?
5. After listening to Cook’s opinion of the suffragettes, Ethel didn’t dare to admit to her own thoughts on the matter. Why do you think that Ethel was scared to speak her mind?