

The Lion

Look at the lion, so bright and bold.

Its colour so nice, a beautiful gold.

So fierce to protect the one he loves.

He will do anything to protect if he must.

Stamping and roaring in the dusty grasslands.

Feeding on meet,

To fill their hunger.

They are aggressive when they need to be.

To kill food when it is needed.

So fierce and wonderful,

Nobly fast.

Nobody can outrun the great beast of the jungle.
