The order of the white Feather

1. Who created the order of the white feather?

Admiral Charles Fitzgerald created the order of the White Feather

2. What is a white feather?

The white Feather is a symbol of cowardice, men were too scared to sign up for the war, the feather symbolized this.

3. What did women give to men?

A white feather.

4. How did this make women feel?

Women felt like they were waging their own battle with men over the vote and that the government didn't support them.

5. How did this make men feel?

Men with disabilities felt inadequate and ashamed, veterans felt underappreciated and disrespected and young boys felt inadequate.

6. Do you agree with the order with the white feather? why?

No, women didn't know the men personally and had no idea what they were going through and who they've lost, they were just judging them from how they look. The also could tell if the men were old enough to even serve, too old to already have served or has a disability that was not visible.
