

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Dave took great pleasure/pleature in teasing Josh, which is why he waited for him at the school gates. The cats turned into scary creasures/creatures and chased Dave into the school. They knocked over chairs and other furnisure/furniture.

2. Rewrite the sentence below so that it is in Standard English.

Josh hasn't got no money left.

3. Tick the option which shows how the underlined words in the sentence below are used.

As Josh whispered more into Fluffy's twitching ear, all the other cats were surprised to see Fluffy laugh hysterically.

Tick one.

as a subordinate clause

as a main clause

as a noun phrase

as a determiner

4. Look at the sentence below. Why is there an apostrophe after the word cats?

The cats' boss gave out a loud meow.

5. Rewrite the sentence below using direct speech. Remember to punctuate your sentence correctly.

Josh thanked Fluffy for scratching his back.
