

Before watching the film:

- What does the word Soar mean? To reach a height.
- Can we think of synonyms for soar? Ascend, escalate.
- What do you think the film is going to be about? A struggling pilot.

Pause the film after 48 seconds as she rests her head on her hand.

- Do you think this is the first time the girl has tried to make the plane fly? No. She has a plan.
- What do you think she is thinking as it flies/crashes? It could work this time.
- How is she feeling as she sits at the desk? Why isn't this working?

Pause the film 1m 17s (when we see their first reaction to each other)

- What do you think she thought when the bag landed? What is that? Who was that?
- Did this change when she saw the plane? No.
- How does the little man feel about the girl? Why is she so big?.
- What do you think she would say to him? What is happening?

Pause the film at 1m 35s when he realises that his airship is broken.

- Is the little man in a hurry? Why? Yes. He crashed and wants to go back.
- Where do you think he is going? Back to his home.
- Do you think this was a planned stop? No. It was an accidental crash.
- How is he feeling at this point? Like he should have been more careful and is worried.
- Why did the director show the girl trying to make her own flying machine in the opening scenes?
To show her love for planes

Pause the film at 2m 50s as he watches the other flying machines disappear over the horizon.

- How do you think the little man is feeling now? I need to get up there.
- What time of day is it? Dusk.

Watch the next 25 seconds and pause on the girl slouching against the rock.

- What do you think they are saying to each other now? I'm sorry I tried to help.
- How is she feeling? How do we know? Unaccomplished. She slouches I defeat.
- Will they give up? No. They will keep on trying.
- What do you think is on the blue paper? Her plan to build a flying machine.

Watch the film until the end.

- What is the job of the small flying men? To put the stars in the sky at night.
- What could we call them? Night Glinters.

- How do you think the girl is feeling as she looks up at the stars at the end? Accomplished and helpful.