

Open-Ended Questions

1. What did William give Chetna to drink?
2. But at that second, this enormously bizarre situation didn't matter. He had to help this Chetna. Now.

What was so bizarre about the situation William found himself in?

3. "You made it!" said the pelican, opening her wings in a warm welcome.

Why do you think that the pelican gave William a warm welcome?

4. After the pelican chick had hatched, why did William take off his t-shirt?
5. "Thank you so much," William said, taking the yellow flowers, honey and turmeric, "but I've really got to be going."

And with that, he began scrambling down the tree.

Why did William rush off so soon after the pelican returned with the flowers, honey and turmeric?