

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

The mountainous/mountainious path led William to a stumpy tree. He was not usually so couragous/courageous, but he knew that Chetna was depending on him. Her injury was serious/sereous and she needed his help.

2. An error is underlined in the sentence below.

William looked after the egg good.

Write the correction in the box.

3. Rewrite the sentence below so that it is in the present perfect tense.

William saw a pelican tap its way out of its shell.

4. Look at the sentences below. Insert a comma after each fronted adverbial.

When he got to the foot of the mountain something big was rustling in a bush.

Through the dancing leaves he could see flashes of black and white.

His heart beating wildly William clambered up the mountain at full pelt.

5. Extend the sentence below by adding a conjunction and another clause.

The pelican was sitting in a nest of sticks.