

Open-Ended Questions

1. Not forgetting the sausages and chips his dad had cooked for tea the other night, Bill stared at his pen, and the hairs on the back of his neck prickled.

Why do you think the hairs on the back of Bill's neck prickled?

For him when he thinks of sausages and chips the excitement makes his neck prickle up

2. Look at the paragraph beginning "What are you..." to the paragraph ending ...you not well?"

Why did Molly suspect that there was something wrong with Bill?

Because he wasn't talking or doing anything

3. Look at the paragraph beginning "So, let's get..." to the paragraph ending ...sure," Molly said.

Why do think that Molly and Freddy didn't want to believe that the pen had magical powers? It might be a prank

4. Look at the paragraph beginning Bill picked up... to the paragraph ending ...against the wall.

Why did it stop raining at exactly 5:08?

Because bill wrote it down with his magic pen

5. Look at the paragraph beginning "Hi, Bill," smiled... to the paragraph ending ...as Bill hesitated.

Why do you think that Bill didn't appear to be grateful for the pizza he was being offered? Because it was free