

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Scarab didn't like advensures/adventures/advenchers but was happy to leave the enclosure/encloture/encloser of the tomb. The children left the gold and other treasure/treature/treasher behind even though it would have made them risher/riture/richer.

2. Read the sentence below. Underline two conjunctions.

Scarab was about to agree but he remained silent when he saw they were faced by 180 camels.

3. Rewrite the sentence below so that the adverbial is at the beginning. Remember to insert a comma after the adverbial.

The 180 curved swords were pointing at the three children's faces.

4. Apostrophes are missing from the sentences below. Insert them in the correct place.

- a) The mens swords pointed at the children.
- b) Scarab was shocked at the sight of 180 mounted soldiers on the camels backs.

5. Rewrite the sentence below so that it is punctuated correctly.

Why are you offering me crocodiles asked Beth